

WestlakeMalibu Lifestyle™

From the Publisher

Our objective in Westlake Malibu Lifestyle is to deliver high-profile, thought-provoking interviews that provide you with substantial depth and food for thought. We are particularly interested in remarkable people who display the attributes of courage and altruism. It's particularly gratifying to profile them because they never seek us: we seek them. We limit the seriousness of our editorials by injecting some much-needed humor and light-heartedness - remembering always that self-deprecation is very liberating.

We have loads of variety in our content from the responsible elements of Eco-consciousness to admirable Portraits of Success to exquisite homes and the power of creativity. There's financial good sense imparted to us by experts, medical breakthroughs explained, and the most beautiful parts of the world displayed - places that you can escape to either imaginatively or physically. The choice is yours.

Most importantly, this is a family magazine, so there will never be anything in it that your children shouldn't see. Feel free to display us on your living-room coffee table where we'd like to belong. We intend to have something of interest for every member of your family.

Our hope is that Westlake Malibu Lifestyle will encourage the attributes in society that we seek: fair-mindedness and respect for each other. And if you're kicking back on your day off- enjoying us on the beach - we hope you find some pictorial visual feasts and some fun elements.

Here's to our long and happy association with you. — Diana Lyle

About Our Magazine

Westlake and Malibu are two jewel locations on the lifestyle spectrum, connected in more ways than by a picturesque canyon. While one is tucked up in the beautiful Santa Monica Mountains, the other overlooks the dolphins in the glistening Pacific Ocean. What they have in common is a way of life – close to nature – that is far from the ‘madding crowds’.

Each big glossy issue of Westlake Malibu Lifestyle delivers high-profile, thought-provoking interviews that provide readers with substantial depth versus gossip. There are interesting features and remarkable stories of people’s courage and altruism. Beautiful homes, travel, sport, entertainment, medical breakthroughs and environmentally-responsible subjects are the magazine’s main stays with superb photography and a showcase of talents.

The magazine has a shelf life of two months and saturates these areas: Hidden Valley, North Ranch and Malibu. We also distribute in Calabasas.

There are several advertising options that suit every business budget. Rates depend on size, placement, and length of contract. What’s important is that you know that your advertisement will be distributed to the people who ensure your success. With an attractive and captivating “coffee table” magazine in a prime geographical region, our shelf life long outlives its two-month-issue cycle. The benefits to our advertisers are significant and strong.

One person said, "It was the BEST real estate ad they had EVER seen". I loved that. To make matters even better a call came in from an interested party wanting to see the property. They came and saw it and fell in love and we are in escrow as we speak.

The Ad sold the property; the seller's and I are thrilled!!
